may not be possible under the current conservative government, which has a narrow majority in the lower house of parliament.

Support for the ruling party started shrinking even before the abortion ruling. The government's moves to control the judicial system, a new animal rights law and remarks against LGBT rights by top officials created political divisions and provoked some protests. AP ment project a China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) in town of Pakhtunkhwa province November 18, according to a media report.

Federal Minister Defence Pervaiz Elahi announced that the minister would launch 'CPEC City' project addressing a public meeting in Abakhel, Nowshera district Sunday, the Geo News reported.

"The city will be constructed under the project and will offer education and commercial zones, public buildings, golf course park and sports facilities," the minister said.

He said a large number of industrial units would be set up at the "CPEC City" which would create thousands of jobs for the people of Nowshera and other districts of Pakhtunkhwa.

The USD 60-billion CPEC connecting resource-rich Xinjiang province with Pakistan's strategic Gwadar port in Balochistan is regarded as the flagship project of the multi-billion BRI, a scheme of President Xi Jinping aimed at furthering China's influence globally through Chinese funded infrastructure projects.

India has objected to CPEC as it is being built through Pakistan-occupied Kashmir (PoK).
